

DIAGA IRISH DANCERS

(pronounced dee-AHHH-gah)

Established in 2010 by World medalist and Riverdance cast member Zeph Caissie (pronounced KAY-see), Diaga Irish Dance has become renowned for excellence.

Diaga Irish Dance is connected to the rich Celtic heritage of the Maritimes, and their performances regularly feature local musicians. They have performed at the Royal Nova Scotia International Tattoo, with the Chieftains at Celtic Colours International Festival, and at the Hamburg Police Show. In 2023, Diaga Irish Dance became the first ever school from Atlantic Canada to win a Recall medal at the World Irish Dancing Championships.

The dancers love sharing their passion for Irish dance and music, and sincerely hope you enjoy their performance.
